Ski-In/Ski-Out Condos

Price: $1,299.00 Per Person, based on 4 in a Condo

Imagine an alpine village with heated sidewalks, an out door ice rink, and escalators to bring you to the chair lift. You find yourself on a mountain with perfectly groomed runs and perfectly formed moguls. Our first trip of the year is sure to please the most discriminating traveler! A private motor coach will drive our group from the Eagle airport, with a stop for groceries directly to the Beaver Creek Landing Condominiums. Come and Play In Luxury

LODGING: Beaver Creek Landing is a new luxurious mini-resort at the base of a high speed quad lift. All the condos have full kitchens, fireplaces, washer/dryer, and internet access. The resort has a full service concierge. Complementary village transportation, Complementary on-call ride service, plus Allegria Spa's health club privileges.

THE MOUNTAIN: Beaver Creek Mountain is known for its unique diversity, exceptional snow quality and an award-winning ski and snowboard school. The terrain is 19% beginner, 43% intermediate, and 38% expert. There is a total of 149 trails, 2 bowls, 17 chair lifts, with the longest run of 2 3/4 mile—Truly something for every skier and snowboarder to enjoy. The base is at 8,100 ft and the summit is 11,440 ft.

GENERAL INFORMATION: Three distinct villages lie at the base of Beaver Creek Mountain. Beaver Creek Village the main and eastern-most village is truly the heart of the resort. It is full of quaint shops, art galleries, bars and restaurants. The others are Bachelor Gulch Village and Arrowhead Village. The two towns of Avalon and Edwards are located minutes from the Beaver Creek Resort and offer many dining options, shopping and entertainment venues. They are small enough to walk around and can be reached by free shuttle connections.
